

CAS THESIS SEMINAR: SPRING 2012

Facilitator: Amanda Hammar

Course Outline and Timetable

- 1 FEBRUARY 2011: Registration deadline for Thesis Seminar
- FRI 10 FEBRUARY: Introductory Writing and Methodology Seminar: 10.15-15.00, aud. 12
Overall introduction, guidelines etc. Session on methodology (possible guest lecturer, tbc). Mini writing workshop.
- FRI 17 FEBRUARY: Deadline for submission of first written paper
The first written paper should be between 500-1000 words. It needs to provide a substantive overview/outline of what the thesis is about, how it will be structured, and a timetable for writing and delivery.
- FRI 24 FEBRUARY: First oral presentation in groups: 09.15 – 12.00, room 456
Papers will be individually presented and discussed within groups.
- FRI 2 MARCH: Seminar: Writing a Good Thesis: 10.15 – 12.00, room 456
Guidance from a Censor
Guest Lecturer: Professor Christian Lund
- THURS 22 MARCH: Deadline for submission of second written paper
The second written paper should be between 2200-4400 words. It should be a fully developed text (although still in draft form) that will constitute one of the chapters of your thesis.
- FRI 23 MARCH: Looking Ahead: Future Prospects 10.15 – 12.00, aud. 12
Ideas and prospects for various career paths. Inputs from one or more professionals with African Studies background (t.b.a)
- FRI 30 MARCH: Second oral presentation in groups: 10.15 – 15.00, aud. 12
Papers will be individually presented and discussed within groups.